

Who should use this form

Form 1195 Identity declaration is to be completed and provided to the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) if:

- you are applying online for citizenship or evidence of citizenship – a separate form 1195 must be completed for yourself and each person included in the online application, or
- you are applying for citizenship on a paper form and have more children than the space on your application form allows – a separate form 1195 must be completed for each additional child.

An application for Australian citizenship or evidence of citizenship cannot be approved where a person's identity is not able to be verified.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this form. Once you have completed this form we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Integrity of application

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. If you or a third party acting on your behalf provide, or have provided in a previous application, false or misleading information or documents (either knowingly or otherwise), this application may be refused. In addition, you may be prosecuted under the Migration Act 1958 and/or the Australian Citizenship Act 2007. If information or documents are found to be fraudulent or misleading after you become an Australian citizen, you may be prosecuted and may be subject to revocation of your Australian citizenship.

Who can complete the Identity declaration

Questions 1 and 4 of this form must be completed by the person who is applying for citizenship or evidence of citizenship (the applicant).

Questions 2 and 3 of this form must be completed, and the photograph endorsed and signed, by a person who:

- is an Australian citizen, and
- has known you for at least one year, and
- is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on pages 1 and 2, and
- is not related to you by birth, marriage or de facto relationship, and
- is easy to contact by telephone during normal working hours.

Note: If you are applying from outside Australia and do not know an Australian citizen, Questions 2 and 3 can be completed, and the photograph endorsed and signed by a citizen of your country of residence who has known you for at least one year, is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on pages 1–2, and is not related to you by birth, marriage or de facto relationship.

For children under 6 years of age, Questions 2 and 3 can be completed by an Australian citizen (or citizen of the child's country of residence if applying from outside Australia) who has known the child for less than 12 months, is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on pages 1–2, and is not related by birth, marriage or de facto relationship.

What the photograph requirements are

You will need to submit a passport-size photograph with this form. The person who completes Questions 2 and 3 must also write on the back of your photograph the words:

This is a true photograph of [your full name] and sign the back of the photograph using the same signature as at Question 3.

The photograph must be:

- no more than 6 months old, and
- a full-face view of your head and shoulders (untinted prescription glasses can be worn – a photograph that shows facial features only is acceptable if you wear a head covering for religious reasons), and
- of good quality, in colour, against a plain, light coloured background (laser copies are not acceptable).

Example of photograph

Photograph to be no more than 6 months old

How to submit this form and photograph

If you are applying online for citizenship or evidence of citizenship, pages 3 and 4 of this form must be scanned and attached to your online application. The front and back of your endorsed photograph must also be separately scanned, in colour, and attached to your online application.

If you are applying for citizenship on a paper form, submit this form with your paper form. Place the endorsed photograph in a plastic sleeve or envelope and staple it to this form.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/privacy. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

Personal identifiers collected under the Australian Citizenship Act 2007 are photographs and signatures. The Department and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) have signed an arrangement in accordance with the Australian Citizenship Act 2007 that permits disclosure of your personal identifiers for the purposes of administering the Australian Passport Act 2005. If your application for Australian citizenship is approved, your photograph, client number, name, date of birth and gender will be provided to DFAT.

Citizenship testing in regional Australia by the Department of Human Services

Under the Australian Citizenship Act 2007, the Department has authorised selected officers of the Department of Human Services to be citizenship test administrators and conduct citizenship appointments on behalf of the Department in selected regional centres.

Test administrators are authorised to collect and access your identifying information such as your photograph and signature, and use it along with personal and identifying information provided to the Department of Human Services by the Department to verify your identity and confirm that you are eligible to sit the citizenship test. Personal and identifying information includes your name, date of birth, address, photograph, signature and copies of identity documents.

At the conclusion of your test appointment, the test administrator will electronically transmit the documents and photograph that were used to verify your identity, to the Department for storage in the Department's records management system. The test administrator will then securely destroy the personal and identifying information, including electronic records, except for a record of your name, date of birth and the date of your appointment.
