

Who should use this form?

This form should be used by persons wishing to propose applicants under the Refugee and Special Humanitarian Program, including those eligible under the 'split family' provisions that apply to immediate family members.*

Proposals may be submitted by individuals or by organisations operating in Australia. To be eligible to propose as an individual, you must be:

- an Australian citizen; or
- a permanent resident of Australia; or
- an eligible New Zealand citizen.

You must not be an illegal maritime arrival who arrived on or after 13 August 2012. More information is available on the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) website

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/global-special-humanitarian-202#Eligibility>

If you are eligible to propose, you will also need form 842 Application for an Offshore Humanitarian visa to be completed by the visa applicant and submitted together with this form.

This form must not be used for applications under the Community Support Program.

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your proposal. Once you have completed your proposal we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

What is required of proposers?

If you are proposing applicants who are granted a subclass 202 (Global Special Humanitarian) visa you and the applicants are responsible for the applicants' travel to Australia, including airfares.

If you are proposing applicants under the 'split family' provisions, and any of the following visa subclasses are granted:

- 200 – Refugee;
- 201 – In-country Special Humanitarian;
- 203 – Emergency Rescue;
- 204 – Woman at Risk;

the Australian Government will arrange and pay for the applicants' travel to Australia.

An 'applicant' who is granted a visa and travels to Australia, becomes an 'entrant' on arrival.

Your role as a proposer is to assist in the settlement of the entrants you have proposed. This includes:

- meeting the entrants at the airport;
- providing accommodation for the entrants on arrival;
- assisting the entrants to find permanent accommodation; and
- introducing the entrants to relevant services.

The Department provides settlement services to humanitarian entrants. A Humanitarian Settlement Program (HSP) service provider will contact you to settle those you have proposed.

After a visa has been granted

If the people you are proposing are granted a humanitarian visa before they leave for Australia, please encourage them to attend:

- the Australian Cultural Orientation Program (AUSCO). AUSCO courses prepare participants for their life in Australia. More information is available on the Department's website <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/settling-in-australia/ausco>; and
- a departure health check (DHC). Visa holders undergo a health check within 72 hours of departure for Australia to ensure they are 'fit to fly' and to identify any medical conditions requiring treatment on arrival in Australia.

Integrity of application

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you or the person you are proposing provide us with fraudulent documents or information, this may result in processing delays and possibly the application being refused.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the Department. You must ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

* Under the 'split family' provisions, holders of humanitarian (Class XB), or permanent Protection (Class XA) or Resolution of Status (Class CD) visas may support the applications of immediate family members to enter Australia under the Humanitarian Program. 'Immediate family' means the spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partner), dependent child, or parent (if the proposer is under 18 years of age).

Application process

Special Humanitarian Program applications and proposals may now be lodged electronically. Instructions and guidance are available on the Department's website

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/departamental-forms/online-forms/special-humanitarian-visa-submission-form>

Applications lodged electronically may be processed more quickly.

Step 1 – Complete this form

Carefully read and fully complete this form (form 681).

Step 2 – Establish your eligibility to propose

If you are proposing as an individual, you must provide evidence of your eligibility to propose (see Question 20). Please provide a certified copy of your:

- Australian birth certificate/certificate of Australian citizenship; or
- evidence of your permanent residence in Australia; or
- evidence that you are an eligible New Zealand citizen.

Copies of documents must be certified as true copies of the original by a Justice of the Peace, a Commissioner for Declarations or a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959.

If you are proposing as an organisation, you must provide the names of office holders, and a statement of the organisation's objectives, activities and funding (see Part C).

Step 3 – Send application form to the applicant

Send form 842 Application for an Offshore Humanitarian visa to the applicant.

Step 4 – Applicant completes and signs application form

The applicant should fully complete form 842 in accordance with the instructions on that form and return it to you.

Step 5 – Lodge the completed application

You should lodge this form (form 681) and the completed and signed form 842 Application for an Offshore Humanitarian visa.

Further information, including details on how to lodge this application electronically, is available from the Department's website <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/global-special-humanitarian-202#HowTo>

Step 6 – Receipt of application

The office processing the visa application will acknowledge receipt of the application accompanying your proposal via email.

Part E – Acknowledgement

WARNING: Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

- 38
- I acknowledge that the applicants and I are responsible for arranging and paying for the travel to Australia by the applicants I have proposed if they are granted a subclass 202 (Global Special Humanitarian) visa.
 - I give permission for the information in this form to be given to other agencies and contracted service providers to assist me in my role as the proposer of humanitarian entrants and to assist in the settlement of the entrants.
 - I acknowledge that the information on my record as a proposer may be used by the Department in deciding visa applicants made under the Refugee and Special Humanitarian Program where I am the proposer.

I declare that:

- I have read the information contained in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand the Department may collect, use and disclose my personal information (including biometric information and other sensitive information) as outlined in form 1442i Privacy notice.

Note: In order for the Humanitarian Settlement Program (HSP) service provider to help you with relevant advice and assistance, it is necessary for the information that you give in this form to be made available to the provider. This acknowledgement enables the Department to share the information on this form with the HSP service provider and other settlement service providers as appropriate.
